	Examiner Andrew Lee	Art Unit 2616

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 8-12, 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Grundy et al PG-PUB 2004/0010653.

Re Claims 8, 14, fig. 1 teaches a gateway with plurality of ports communicates with DHCP server that store addressing information (storing an IP address); the processor 108 performs routing function by assigning local IP address to each ports on the gateway [0053]; in particular, fig. 2 teaches step 218 determines whether the destination node (target node) should be routed locally or via WAN whereby based the destination node sets a local addresses (an IP address) to each ports (first and second port) wherein the local addresses.

Re Claims 9, 10, 11, refer to Claim 8, wherein the DHCP server store information about ports; the gateway intercepts the data stream and based on the information determines (processing the data) to route (transmitting) locally or via WAN (destination) wherein the data stream is translated accordingly (a newly made data).

Re Claim 12, refer to Claim 8, wherein the DCHP further includes LAN addressing information and translator module to perform ARP function.

3. Claims 13, 15, 16, 18, 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

In combination with Claims 8 and 13, prior art fails to teach activating and deactivating the ports when setting the IP addresses.

In combination with Claims 14 and 16, prior art fails to teach the gateway transmitting the IP address of the target node with a local loop back process whereby the IP address of the target node and the IP address of the first port being the same.

4. Claim 17 is allowed

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 3/17/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Re Claims 8 and 14, Applicant argues that there is no disclosure or suggestion that any port 120 has the same IP address. However, this limitation is not claimed.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
